Vidal Vidal Sassoon 2010-09-03 Vidal Sassoon's extraordinary life has taken him from an impoverished East End childhood to global fame. The father of modern hairdressing, his slick sharp cutting took the fashion world by storm and reinvented the hairdressers' art. Before Vidal Sassoon, a trip to the hairdressers meant a shampoo and set or a stiffly lacquered up-do that would last a week - or more. After Vidal Sassoon, hair was sleek, smooth and very, very stylish. Along with his lifelong friend and partner in style, Mary Quant, who he first met in 1957 and who to this day sports a Sassoon-style geometric bob, he styled the 1960s. As memorable as the mini - be it car or skirt - he is one of the few people who can genuinely be described as iconic. His memoirs are as rich in anecdote as one might hope and full of surprising and often moving stories of his early life - his time at the Spanish & Portuguese Jewish Orphanage in Maida Vale, fighting Fascists in London's East End and fighting in the army of the fledgling state of Israel in the late Forties. And then there's the extraordinary career, during which he cut the hair of everyone who was anyone, launched salons all over the world, founded the hairdressing school that still bears his name and became a global brand, with Vidal Sassoon products on all our bathroom shelves.

Inspirational Aromatherapy Beverley Higham 2015-03-20 I can't wait to share my unique personalised guide to aromatherapy. This book contains some of my writings on the subject I am most passionate about. Discover why aromatherapy is much more than just a smelly treatment, how it can enhance your health and well-being. Enjoy some of my aromatic suggestions and recipes and read some simple case studies. Join me on one of my aromatic adventures in the high Alps of Provence as I describe my week and the experiences I had with the many plants I encountered. Be inspired by the power of the flower and many other plant oils on our fragrant planet. I was born an aromatherapist! My early memories from childhood are full of aroma. I am a teacher and practitioner, and I continue to be astounded by the wondrous possibilities aromatherapy brings to our health and well-being. It is all captured here in this book. Read it and discover what you need to grow!

Nails Lindsey Anderson 2011 “Designed to closely match the content of many of the mandatory units of Level 2 Nails qualifications, each chapter will guide you through what you need to know and how to prepare for assessment. services are all covered in the context of nail services. The practical skills required to provide manicure and pedicure treatments, nail art and nail enhancement are also explored in detail and illustrated with easy-to-follow step-by-step photos.” -back cover.

An Holistic Guide to Massage Tina Parsons 2004 An Holistic Guide to Massage incorporates the links between body, mind and soul in the search for well-being. This approach has not been taken by any other text written about massage. Other texts currently available tend to focus on one theory and one theory only, where-as this book encourages students to look at the wider picture encompassing different theories. The students are then able to make their own mind up about which massage therapy to practice. This title is ideal for any students taking Beauty Therapy NVQ levels 2 or 3, as well as VTCT, City & Guilds, BTEC and other massage courses. Hairdressing Leah Palmer 2009 Fully updated to reflect the latest Hairdressing Standards from British Vocational Qualifications Kogan Page 2003 Over the last decade as the importance of vocational qualifications has been firmly established, the system has become increasingly complex and hard to grasp. Now in its sixth edition, this popular and accessible reference book provides up-to-date information on over 3500 vocational qualifications in the UK. Divided into five parts, the first clarifies the role of the accrediting and major awarding bodies and explains the main types of vocational qualifications available. A directory then lists over 3500 vocational qualifications, classified by professional and career area, giving details of type of qualification, title, level, awarding body and, where possible, the course code and content. The third section comprises a glossary of acronyms used, together with a comprehensive list of awarding bodies, industry lead bodies, professional institutes and associations, with their contact details. Section four is a directory of colleges offering vocational qualifications in the UK, arranged alphabetically by area. Finally, section five is an index of all qualifications, listed alphabetically by title.
